

Ciklopea is a well known name and a regional leader in the language industry. As a professional translation center with offices in Croatia (Zagreb and Rijeka) and in Serbia (Belgrade) and a top team of specialized professionals we help companies and institutions from various industries to bridge language and cultural barriers and to make multilingual communication with their target markets fast and efficient.

Ciklopea Summer School is an example of the good practice of taking initiative and realizing the cooperation between the industry and the academic community.

The aim of the Summer School is to make the first contact between the students of the linguistic studies and the language industry, their development and advancement, as well as the exchange of knowledge and experience, all to make the students, i.e. the professional translators to be, as ready as possible to keep up with the professional challenges lying ahead and to make their transition to the working world as successful as possible. Therefore, we you: the degree candidates and the graduate students of language studies (English and German language) from the entire region of Southeast Europe (Croatia, Slovenia, Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Republic of Macedonia, Montenegro and Albania), who are willing to expand their knowledge and advance in their profession to apply for Ciklopea Summer School in Zagreb, taking place between 17th and 28th of August 2015.

INVITE

We expect the candidates to:

1. have an excellent knowledge of their first language (Croatian, Serbian, Slovenian, Bosnian, Macedonian, Montenegrin, Albanian)
2. have an excellent knowledge of German and English
3. pass a short language test

The Summer School programme includes:

- Introduction to work in the language industry (an agency)
- Introduction to possible occupations and career development
- Introduction to Computer Assisted Translation
- Translation with supervision of the assigned mentor
- Workshops: CAT tools
- Workshops: Translation Quality Assurance (QA)

During the Summer School we will secure professional leadership, mentorship and professional orientation.

We invite the interested students to submit their application via email to hr@ciklopea.com until 07/15/2015.

Submit your CV (in English, Croatian, Serbian or Slovenian) and explain why it is you who should be selected as a student of our summer school!

Soon after, we will announce the names of the 15 participants.

Additional notes:

We are able to organize a reasonably priced accommodation at a university residence hall for you during the Summer School.

It is also possible to organize group lunches every day, at a promotional price.

Please feel free to contact us for any additional info!

We are looking forward to your application!

Ciklopea team